Kheeran Finalizes Franchise Program

Edmonton, AB (April 15, 2015) – Kheeran Inspection Services Inc. announces that it has made a further commitment to service the worldwide oil and gas industry by opening a program that will bring Kheeran offices to every corner of the world.

Kheeran is looking for individuals that have a technical background and want to run their own office. As a touchpoint for the Kheeran brand all Franchisees will be taken through an extensive corporate training program. They will also be offered extensive office support and resources to help out with starting and running the office.

If this is something that peaks your interest, you are encouraged to contact a Kheeran representative to get more information on current franchise opportunities and qualifications.
