Company Announcement.

Kheeran Receives ISO 9001:2008 Certification

Edmonton, AB (July 15, 2014) – Kheeran Inspection Services Inc. is proud to announce that it has received the ISO 9001:2008 certification.

Kheeran has been operating under the guidelines of ISO standards since the beginning of the company; however, we believe that the decision to get certified is an important step as a company. The decision anticipates the growing demands from both our competition and clients and our commitment to providing our clients with services that adhere to the highest standards.

To become ISO certified, Kheeran went through an evaluation process that included looking at our entire quality program and supplementary documentation. This process is designed to help us identify corrective actions and make the appropriate changes. The main goal is the continual improvement of our system and business.
